

NORTH YORKSHIRE
MOORS RAILWAY

One Day Digital Photography Workshops on the North Yorkshire Moors Railway

with John Potter B.Ed (Hons) LRPS

These one day workshops are offered at both beginners' and more advanced levels. Led by professional landscape photographer, author and teacher John Potter, you will learn how to take good quality location and landscape images, and characterful portraits.

You will spend the morning photographing around Pickering Station and learning how to use Photoshop Elements to organise, edit and enhance your photos. After a light lunch you will travel to Goathland on our steam railway for landscape and location photography. On returning to Pickering, John will finish by processing a few images from the day. There will be course notes to take away, and after the workshop John can offer e-mail feedback and support for your images taken during the workshop.

Each course is limited to six participants to allow enough time and attention to be given to everyone.

Feedback from the summer 2011 season of digital photography workshops

"Absolutely first rate. The leader, John Potter, was very lucid, knowledgeable and communicated the content in a first rate manner." (DP/29July11/01)

"Lovely day, very informative and nice sandwiches!" (DP/29July11/03)

"Really enjoyed the day! Thank you! It was a good balance of learning various things (software) and actually taking pictures." (DP/29July11/06)

"A very recommendable course. Content just enough. Group size good. Help for everyone. Congratulations. Room and space excellent." (DP/20Aug11/01)

"I learnt so much, not only how to take a landscape photograph, but also how to use the Photoshop software I purchase sometime ago and used only to store photographs in. Amazingly you can do wonders with it." (DP/20Aug11/email01)
